A Note From Ms. Kay

As the 21-22 school year comes to a close and we break for summer, I encourage all families to take the time to enjoy it. Go for walks and hikes to explore nature, read family books, cook meals together, plan road trips, play games, and/or volunteer together. All of these events will help your child learn valuable lessons that help your child grow.

As we begin the last month of school, we have several things going on. Use this as one resource of information, but also watch for separate notes from classroom teachers, as well as from the school itself, to stay informed of everything going on throughout May.
